

WEISSBERG FOUNDATION

We envision a just world that recognizes inequities and builds access, opportunity, and power so that all can thrive.

Our mission is to advance organizations and efforts that give voice and opportunity to historically marginalized populations through funding, amplification, capacity building, and collaboration.

EQUITY • LISTENING & LEARNING • INTENTIONALITY • INGENUITY • TRUST & EMPOWERMENT

STRATEGIES

FUND

Identify the most promising initiatives giving voice and opportunity to historically marginalized populations and provide them with funding that best meets their needs.

AMPLIFY

Empower and embolden our grantees to speak up, speak up more ourselves, and use our platform to turn up the volume on voices we believe need to be heard.

BUILD CAPACITY

Approach our work with a strong learning agenda; engage in efforts to strengthen the capacity of our grantees, our own foundation, and the social sector to be more effective.

COLLABORATE

Connect, convene, and collaborate with others within and across sectors to leverage resources, amplify voices, learn, and mobilize for change.

PROGRAM AREAS

DMV POWER

Building a strong and sustainable culture and infrastructure of community power to advance racial equity in Washington, DC, suburban Maryland, and Virginia.

EQUITABLE JUSTICE

Advancing justice reform with an intersectional equity lens, centering women, girls, trans, and gender non-conforming individuals of color.

EQUITY, DIVERSITY & INCLUSION IN THEATER

Building the capacity of DC-area theaters to advance equity, diversity, and inclusion through their governance, operations, and programming.

PROGRAM IN HUMAN RIGHTS & SOCIAL JUSTICE

Supporting Beloit College and its students, faculty, and community to engage critically with, promote, and defend human rights and social justice.

OUTCOMES

FOUNDATION

The foundation operates equitably, effectively, and efficiently.

GRANTEES

Grantees have strengthened their capacity to operate sustainably and advance their goals.

COMMUNITIES

Change agents from historically marginalized populations are empowered to advance equitable and improved outcomes.
