

WEISSBERG FOUNDATION

We envision a world that recognizes inequities and actively seeks to dismantle structural racism by continuously building access, opportunity, and power so that all can thrive.

MISSION

Through funding, amplification, capacity building, and collaboration, advance organizations and efforts building power of those most negatively impacted by racism.

VALUES

Listening & Learning | Building Power & Community | Equity & Justice

STRATEGIES

Fund

Identify the most promising initiatives centering people directly impacted by structural racism and other systems of oppression and support them with funding that best meets their needs.

Amplify

Empower and embolden our grantee partners and ourselves to speak up more, using our platform to turn up the volume on voices we believe need to be heard.

Build Capacity

Strengthen the capacity of our foundation, philanthropy, our grantee partners, and the social sector to be more equitable and effective.

Collaborate

Connect, convene, and collaborate with others within and across sectors to leverage resources, amplify voices, learn, and mobilize for change.

KEY PROGRAM AREAS

DMV Power

Building a strong and sustainable culture and infrastructure of community power to advance racial equity in Washington, DC, suburban Maryland, and Virginia.

Equitable Justice

Advancing justice reform with an intersectional equity lens, centering women, girls, trans, and gender non-conforming individuals of color.

Equity, Diversity & Inclusion in Theater

Building the capacity of DC-area theaters to advance equity, diversity, and inclusion through governance, operations, and programming.

Program in Human Rights & Social Justice

Supporting Beloit College and its students, faculty, and community to engage critically with, promote, and defend human rights and social justice.

OUTCOMES

Foundation

The foundation operates equitably, effectively, and efficiently toward our vision and mission.

Grantee Partners

Grantees have strengthened their capacity to operate sustainably and advance their goals.

Communities

Change agents are empowered to advance equitable practices and outcomes.
